

12 COOL THINGS To Do During Fall

EERIE EXPERIENCE

Brave your way through tremendous scares at the Haunted Mansions of Albion.

CANDY GALORE

Take the little ones to the multiple Trunk or Treat events taking place throughout Southern Idaho.

JACK-O-LANTERNS

Pick out the largest pumpkins for your carving needs at Crismor's Pumpkin Patch in Buhl.

FALL HARVEST

Costume parades and trick-or-treating are only some of the activities offered at the Jerome Farmers Market Annual Harvest Festival.

HUNTERS' GAME

Southern Idaho's proximity to wildlife makes it the ideal place during hunting season.

A TOUR OF FALL

Don't bale on the hayrides at Tubbs' Berry Farm and bring home some honey to your honey.

HALLOWEEN THRILL

Try not to jump as you journey through the Idaho Haunted Swamp in Twin Falls.

FIND YOUR WAY

Get lost and have fun on slides at the Burley Straw Maze.

BREWING TRADITION

Celebrate Oktoberfest in the new Downtown Twin Falls, featuring food, car shows, music, street vendors and more.

WINE WITH A VIEW

Visit Idaho's 2017 Winery of the Year—Crossings Winery in Glenns Ferry—for the best in wine and autumn scenery.

HEAPS OF SHEEP

Flank to one of the best cultural festivals in the world: Sun Valley's Trailing of the Sheep.

HAUNT & FLAUNT

Ghosts and ghouls of all ages put on their best costumes for the Hailey Halloween Hoopla.

*Heaps of Sheep photo courtesy of Carol Waller.