To Do & See In Rural

Southern IDAHO

STEEPLE ROCKS

Little City of Rocks in Gooding offers opportunities from climbing, camping, hiking, hunting and birding for those with the spirit of adventure.

DURFEE HOT SPRINGS

Melt away aching muscles in therapeutic waters, perfect after a hike or climb at nearby City of Rocks.

LAKE WALCOTT

Disc golf, ice fishing, and family biking will keep you coming back here all year long.

CANYON CREATION

Discover Earl M. Hardy Box Canyon Springs Nature Reserve. Take a dip in pristine turquoise spring water after a fabulous hike.

HUMMERS GALORE

Stand among large flocks of humming birds that migrate to this wilderness sanctuary every April – September thanks to feeders supplied by locals!

FAIRWAYS & FISH

18 holes of golf and year-round fly fishing for trout is a hole-in-one opportunity at Clear Lakes Country Club.

LAKE CLEVELAND

Popular for a host of summer activities, this alpine lake below Mt. Harrison offers the best in a rural adventure.

FISHING OASIS

Grab your gear and head to Scott's Pond where fish and relaxation are readily available.

BALANCED ROCK PARK

Climb around this unique 40-ton carved rock perfectly balanced on a mere three-foot pedestal.

FLYING SAUCERS

Popular disc golfing sites around the region—Pomerelle Ski Resort, Magic Mountain and College of Southern Idaho – are great for an afternoon to test your throwing skills.

BUHL BARN

Photographers and historians alike will reap huge rewards touring amazing old barns.

PIONEER PATHWAY

Pioneers crossed the mighty Snake River at Three Island Crossing. Camp, bike, hike and check out wildlife in a historical setting.
